VOL. XXXVII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, AUGUST 20, 1909.

NO. 50.

BRODHEAD.

Mrs. John Newland and children, of Lebanon Junction, are with relatives here.

Mrs. William McKinney, of near Spiro, died and was buried in Freedom cemetery Friday. She leaves four small children.

George Roberts, of near Marethurg, sold to Ben Dillingham his farm of 40 acres for $700 and bought of Ben Albright a 100 acre tract of land for $900, also a small tract from Mrs. Amanda Owens; consideration not known.

Before this is read by all of your readers the Rockcastle County Fair will have been a thing of the past. At this writing, Tuesday afternoon, it is hard to say just what success the association will meet with. People are divided as to whether it will be a "good fair" or not. The town is filling up with people, quite a number of strangers coming in. The fairs can be seen on all sides. The principal attraction at "the Country Fair" will be conspicuous for its absence this year—the merry-go-round, but in its place will be the ocean wave, but judging from what we have already seen it will not be much. The "cane" man and the "doll baby" man are both here. The "candy man" has his tent up. In our opinion the best attraction will be the three plays rendered by the Hamiltonian Club on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights. The plays are entitled, "Out in the Streets," "Farmer Hosskins" and "From Pumpkin Ridge." The fair at this place is one of the main events of the year and is treated as "Home Coming Week" among our people and many be the friends and relatives who visit here during the meet. Some of the visitors now with us are Mr. and Mrs. John Jarrett, Jr., of near Liberty; Mr. Isaac Storms, of Keavy; Mrs. Mona Dunn and daughter, Miss Ella, of Danville; Mrs. Belle Henderson, of Lowell; George Frith, of Nebraska, and others too numerous to mention.

No matter how long you have suffered, Foley's Kidney Remedy will help you. Mrs. S. L. Bowen, of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." It will cure you. Sold by New Stanford Drug Co.

Her Mother—I saw him kiss you! I am terribly shocked. I did not for a moment imagine he would dare take such a liberty. Himself—Nor did I, ma. In fact, I bet him a pair of gloves he daren't!

That King's Mountain Graded School Matter Again.

KING'S MOUNTAIN, Aug. 17.—There are hundreds of people who read the INTERIOR JOURNAL who do not know anything about the King's Mountain Graded School and we think Murphy and Acton made a mistake in publishing the statement as they did that will almost circle the globe for the purpose of trying to justify themselves for not levying a school tax. They knew that people here did not believe their story and then was the time to stop. They say in one statement that they urged us to levy the tax and in another statement they say they did not say anything about it for they knew we would vote against the levy. Why did they think we would vote against levying a tax when they knew we had all agreed to make the levy any time. They refer to meetings of the board in the latter part of May and first part of June in which they say they urged us to levy the tax. At the date of these meetings they were president and secretary and why would they be urging us to see that the tax was levied?

At a meeting of the board on July 14, President Lane suggested we borrow money and have a nine months' school and then vote an additional tax for the purpose of raising this money. This was discussed and Murphy advised us to work in this election and Acton and himself would just keep quiet. He wanted to do this because he did not want the tax or knew he had no influence. They finally agreed to help in the election but wanted the poll $1.50, which they knew would be voted down. We agreed on a poll of $1 and 20 cents on property. Later we were informed that the tax payers were not in favor of the $1 poll. Murphy and Acton objected to levying any less. We called the board together and voted for a poll of 50c. We then sent a petition to Judge J. S. Owsley to order an election. Before the petition had time to reach Stanford we were informed that Murphy and Acton were trying to influence men to vote against this additional tax.

It is well known here that because Murphy and Acton could not rule the board and employ the teachers they wanted, that they are now trying to ruin the school. Last year when the school was crowded and not seats enough, they had girls employed in their homes to do housework who lived out of the district but who came in on or about the first day of school free, one of them being over 21 years, the patrons paying the tax and their children crowded for five months before they would agree to have the matter adjusted. This is a fact and they can not deny it. Murphy was elected trustee in 1907, for two years, according to his own handwriting in the minutes when he was secretary; and this is also the statement of men who were trustees at that time. His time expired in May, 1909. A man was elected trustee to fill his place. Murphy refused him a certificate of election and is now serving as trustee unlawfully and against the will of almost every voter in the district.

We have the minute books, the opinion of attorneys who have seen them, and a number of the most reliable men here who are witnesses to these well-known facts.

One of the shortest sermons on record was that preached at the funeral of Mrs. Cresswell, a woman of the Stuart restoration period in England. She bequeathed $50 to fee a clergyman to preach her funeral sermon, stipulating that he was to mention her name and to speak nothing but well of her. He got over the obvious difficulty by briefly alluding to any, praise except this: "She was born well, she lived well and she died well, for she was born with the name of Cresswell; she lived in Clerkenwell and Camberwell and she died in Brixdown."

There were 12 deaths from heat in Kansas City in 12 hours Tuesday.

EDITOR BECKHAM delivers a broadside at his so-called democratic critics anent his warning concerning the unholy alliance between Mr. Watterson and John Whallen and their attempt to capture the State for the liquor interests, the one proclaiming that "no democrat can be a prohibitionist" and the other representing all that is low in the nefarious traffic in liquors. All the same the ex-governor is right. Democracy can not afford to pay the price of the support of these bolters and marplots. The State Journal's fight on them has had the effect of driving Mr. Watterson to Europe and Buckingham John into the background. Bully for Beckham! His fight for pure and undefiled democracy is hearing fruit.

THE president has issued an order to take the census out of politics, after having decreed that only republicans shall be appointed in Kentucky and the Eastern States. Mr. Taft seems to be trying to fool somebody, but he makes as big a mistake as Gov. Willson does in the fooling business when he proclaims non-partisanship.

FATALISTS can find fact for their theory in the statement that a boy who had fallen from a fourth story building in a Pennsylvania town was killed in an accident to the automobile in which he was being conveyed to the hospital. Some people seem born to be hanged and others to die tragic deaths, with no escape from them.

THE "dry" won in 17 of the 21 counties in South Carolina, where the vote was taken Tuesday to choose between prohibition and the county dispensary system. The election was without excitement or special incident in any county and a small vote was polled.

STATISTICS show that women bring the larger number of divorce suits. There may and doubtless are many reasons for it, but the fact that the man has to pay the costs and both his and her lawyers, may cut some figure.

ANOTHER "allinity" marriage has come to grief in Philadelphia. The wife is plaintiff in a suit for divorce and $10,000, charging that the man who was made for her beat her unmercifully.

THE way the prohibitionists are getting in their work in the South, it may soon come to be treason to even mention an intoxicant.

Gov. HASKELL, of Oklahoma, who is being pursued in legal proceedings started at the behest of Roosevelt, is fighting the devil with fire by filing sensational allegations, one of which is that the grand jury was forced to indict him for the alleged Muscogee town lot frauds after they had voted not to do so by being told that they would be indicted for perjury if they failed. The persistence of the fight against Haskell has degenerated the prosecution into a persecution and created great sympathy for him by those who know the character of the fight.

THE comptroller of the currency is sending out letters containing a number of questions concerning banking matters, to directors, in order to see if they are on to their jobs and the answers he is receiving shows that the average director no more directs the bank than he does the universe. If directors really directed we would hear much less of defalcation by the other officials.

SENATOR GORE, the blind statesman from Oklahoma, is talked of for the presidency next time by the democrats. Should he be nominated and elected he would find out so many strange things in government that he might be able to sing "Once I was blind but now I can see."

THE motor plow is the latest. With it an acre of land can be broken for 25 cents, whereas it costs $3 to plow it with horses. It may come to pass that the farmer's life will become such a delightful one that they will be back to the farm instead of on to the city.

The State University, Lexington, Ky., offers the following courses, namely: Agricultural, Mechanical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Mining Engineering, Chemical and seven scientific courses, each of which extends over four years and leads to a Bachelor's degree; also a Department of Law and a Department of Education, which last has been established instead of the Normal School. Persons who enter this department prepare for advanced work in pedagogy and are granted a Bachelor's degree in this subject when completed. The Academy for preparatory instruction is retained.

The laboratories and museum are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern. Military service is fully provided for as required by Congress.

The graduates in the several courses of study readily find employment with liberal remuneration. The total number of matriculates for last year was 1,078. Each department has a specialist at its head, with the necessary number of assistants.

Young women find an excellent home, with board and lodging, in Patterson Hall, which is well equipped with all the modern conveniences, bathroom, hall for physical culture, at $10 per week. All courses of study in the University are open to women on identical conditions with those applying to males.

The completion of the Agricultural, Mining Engineering, Laboratory and Education buildings afford ample and commodious quarters for these departments, which are rapidly increasing in the number of matriculates.

For catalogues, methods of obtaining appointments, information regarding courses of study and terms of admission, apply to JAS. K. PATTERSON, Ph.D., LL.D., President, or to D. C. FRANKS, Business Agent.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms, only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, led breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend WRAY.—Mr. David W. Wray, who formerly lived in this State and was a brother of the late James M. Wray, of this place, died at Henton Harbor, Mich., last week. He is survived by his widow and four grown children.

THE fiscal court was in session Wednesday about half of the day, passing on county road claims, which will amount to about $7,000. Judge Owsley tells us the claims will run about $1,000 less than last year, when all of them come in and are passed on.

BADLY HURT.—F. Logan Thompson, who lives in the Goshen section, was kicked by a mule and badly hurt Tuesday evening. He had driven the animal up to shear him and in tying him he began to kick him. One foot struck him in the stomach and the other on the end of his chin, rendering him unconscious, in which condition he remained for 10 hours.

THE big Laurel County Fair, London, Ky., Aug. 24, 25, 26, 27. Hon. W. O. Bradley, U. S. Senator from Kentucky, will deliver an address on the fair grounds on Wednesday, 25th, subject: "The Mountains of Kentucky." Hon. Richmond P. Special excursion train from Richmond via Lancaster and Stanford, stopping at all stations, returning the same day, on Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 25 and 26. Trains stop right at entrance to fair grounds.

COURT OF INQUIRY.—Squire Dave R. Adams held a court of inquiry at Kingsville Tuesday for the purpose of looking into the assassination of James A. Engleman, agent of the Q. & C. railroad. County Attorney W. S. Burch, Sheriff T. J. Hill and Deputies Lee Hill and W. H. Hester were all present. Some 40 or 50 witnesses were examined, but proof against none of them was sufficient to hold them to the grand jury or an examining trial. The railroad company has several detectives at work on the case and we hope to hear that the guilty party has been apprehended ere many more days come and go. Let no stone be turned in the effort to arrest and punish the black assassin.

News comes from Hustonville that a newspaper is to be launched in that thriving and delightful little city. The promoters, we are informed, are Messrs. Henry R. Camnitz, who is at present with a large printing concern in Cincinnati, but whose family resides at Hustonville, and Smith D. Yowell, formerly a merchant of the West End capital. As the former gentleman is a republican and the latter a democrat, we suppose the publication will be non-partisan in politics. Hustonville is a good business point and the promoters should make a living, if not more, out of their enterprise. THE INTERIOR JOURNAL offers its assistance in any way to the gentlemen above mentioned and invites them to feel at liberty in asking anything they wish. We wish them success and heartily welcome them into the ranks of journalism.

THE Brodhead fair is in full blast with a good show of stock and a big crowd in attendance. To-day is the last of the series. Go up.

THE farmers are cutting their tobacco and farm help is exceedingly scarce and high. Those who know say there will be a heavy yield of the weed.

FARM FOR SALE.—115-acre farm on Dix river, four miles North of Stanford and near Hubble. Improvements fairly good and splendid new barn. J. F. Rigney, Stanford.

JUDGE GANN, who was county judge of Russell, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. Ora Gooch, at McKinney, yesterday morning, aged about 65. The remains will be taken to Jamestown for interment.

THE republicans will meet here tomorrow and go through the silly performance of nominating a county ticket. As the honor is an entirely empty one we opine they will have trouble in finding enough men who are willing to offer as lambs for sacrifice to make up a full ticket.

DROPPED DEAD.—Will Hardin, brother of the late Mark Hardin, of this place, dropped dead of heart trouble in Memphis, where he was engaged in business. He is survived by his wife but left no children. Mr. Hardin attended his brother's burial here in December last.

WE wish to express through the paper our sincere thanks and appreciation for the kindness shown us by relatives and neighbors during the illness and death of our little one, especially the undivided care and attention of the physicians and nurse, also the thoughtfulness of Messrs. Dinwiddie and Surber and the comforting words of Bro. Montgomery and the choir for such sweet music. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Carpenter.

DOUBLE KILLING.—At Dry Fork church, near Phil, Casey county, Saturday night, John and Addie Chapman became engaged in a fight with John Perry Luttrell and family and when the smoke of battle cleared away Addie Chapman and John Perry Luttrell were found dead from wounds inflicted with knives in their breasts, and John Chumley and wife, son-in-law and daughter of Luttrell, were both seriously wounded with stabs and gun shot wounds. Bad feeling had existed between the Luttrells and Chapmans for some time. Three of the former family and two of the latter are in jail at Liberty.
